BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

W. W. BROWN, A. B. HUTCHISON, } EDITORS.

Terms, $2 per Annum, in Advance.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning. Sept. 22, '69.

GET UP CLUBS.—We hope that our friends in each of the townships will go to work to secure us a list of subscribers for the campaign. The price of the Republican for three Months is ——50 cts. Every member of the party should subscribe for it. We appeal to Post Masters and others to get up clubs for the Republican.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?—All citizens who desire to vote at the October election, should see to it that their names are on the Registry, as made by the Assessors, under the new Registry law. Naturalized citizens must present their certificates to the Assessor when applying for registration, unless they have been voters in the district five consecutive years. It is well to attend to this matter in time, so that all who are entitled to vote shall be registered.

Just Like Them.

That the leaders of the Democratic party entertain any genuine sympathy for the workingman, or concern themselves in his fortunes, has become too apparent to require any serious argument to demonstrate. Just so long as they can be wheedled and cajoled into the support of that party by promises as baseless as ropes of sand, the Democratic leaders will be loud in their sycophantic avowals of interest in the welfare of our hard-toiling mechanics and artizans. Promises are as cheap as confederate notes, and Democratic promises are about as worthless. The suffrages of our laboring classes are required to keep the Democratic aristocrats in power and place, and to this end, and for no other earthly reason, do Democratic howlers grow hoarse in their wordy professions of sympathy and interest in the welfare of the poor men in this country. The Democratic leaders entertain the belief that poor men can wax fat upon these promises—can support, clothe and educate their families. At least they do no more than promise. Just so surely as a position worth money is to be given away to members of that party, just so surely do the political jobbers who control the appointments pass by the claims and needs of the very men who have placed them in position, and deal out the "fat takes" to some favored high-shirt-collared aristocrat who never did a hard days labor in his life. The workingman is always the very last man thought of, though possessing equal, and in many cases, superior qualifications.

In connection with this subject, it is pleasing to note that here and there as the fact forces itself upon their attention, workingmen are breaking away from the party to whose fortunes they have so long clung, and are ranging under the banners of the only party their friend, protecter and help in their times of need—the Republican party. The Scranton Republican says:

"Workingmen put in nomination and supported in the Democratic convention by the delegates from their own localities, were thrown over, and men nominated in their stead who could not secure the endorsement of their own districts. The only workingmen running for office in the county are to be found on the Republican ticket. And this is not the first year that such has been the case."

The Germans of Luzerne county held a convention last week, and unanimously voted themselves out of the Democratic party, and will hereafter be found voting with the only party thoroughly at heart their friend. The Germans of Luzerne are hardworking men, but the shameful treatment they have received at the hands of the Democratic leaders, has had the effect to arouse their indignation and result as stated.

Will the workingmen of Centre co., still in the Democratic ranks, longer affiliate with their enemies?

New Music.

That me fa sol laing aristocrat, J. G. Moyer, has in press, a new piece of sheet music. The frontispiece embellishment represents two immense streams of oil—on paper of course—falling in broad waves upon Haines and Penn townships. By an ingenious device the skilled engraver has managed to give us a very complete life-history of J. G. One wave reads: "$800 out of my brother's pocket;" another, "How I swindled Jaky Neidigh;" others "How handy to have tenants with wives;" "Farms from my neighbor's pockets;" "school funds for substitutes," etc., etc. The words to which the music is set, commence:

"If so soon I am to be done for,
I wonder what I was begun for."

Moyer does not anticipate a fortune from the sale of this "document" in Miles tp., as he says they "cannot comprehend his system."

The "Harmonious Democracy."

Our exchanges are filled with notices of Democratic bickerings, and a general dissolution of that party in a large number of counties and principal towns and cities throughout the State. It is steadily breaking up, and its members being paroled, or else are boldly deserting the demoralized ranks of the "harmonious," and rallying under the banners of the confident and irresistable Republicans. The work of disintegration, like an insatiable cancer, has seized upon the once proud democracy, and the pillars are crumbling and tottering to their fall. The dissensions which the party leaders and press have heretofore partially covered up and kept from public view, can no longer be buried, healed or banished from sight. The differences existing are radical, positive and fatal, and the result of the campaign will demonstrate that the democracy have nowhere advanced, or even held their own, but have steadily lost in votes and party spirit. The democracy of Philadelphia are in a deplorable plight. Their nominees—or the best and strongest of them—unwilling to incur the expense of a hopeless contest, are resigning, and the bewildered leaders are praying lustily for somebody more reckless than Sam Patch to take their places. In the 15th Senatorial District ex-U. S. Senator Buckalew, and ex-Assemblyman Thos. Chalfant, of Montour county, are making desperate efforts to butt each other's political brains out in an effort to represent Northumberland, Montour, Columbia and Sullivan counties in the State Senate. In Cameron county, as in a half dozen other districts, the disaffected democracy have established papers in the interest of certain independent candidates, and the growlings, mutterings, grumblings and cursings, generally, of the much badgered and demoralized democracy equal that of the little army in Flanders. Such "harmony" was never seen this side of Pluto's dominions, where the whole raft of poor-men-plunderers are bound on the 12th of October next.

LAY ON MCDUFF.—The Watchman, and Fred Krauts' "noserag" at Centre Hall, are attempting to make a ripple in the politics of Pennsvalley, and stay the general stampede to Coburn which has broken out in that famous Democratic precinct. We have patiently waited for both these doughty warriors to express their sentiments, and vainly hoped for some tangible proof—some fact or figure in their ocean of words upon the subject—before going into a general history of that famous railroad transaction in which the papers mentioned clamorously charge Mr. Coburn with being unpleasantly connected. We shall wait no longer. The record of Mr Coburn, and that of his opponent, Mr. Moyer, alias Meyer, in connection with the Pennsvalley railroad project, will hereafter receive our especial attention until the valiant scribblers of the Watchman and Reporter are content to throw up the sponge, and cry out, "hold, enough!" Biz, gentlemen, business.

THE Centre Hall "noserag" comes to the defence of Meyer, and attempts to break the force of our inquiry touching Moyer, or, rather, Meyer's complicity in the Haines township oil swindle. The defence but plunges Moyer, or, rather, Meyer, more deeply into the mire of corruption and deceit enveloping the transaction, and substantially admits the truth of our charge. How many hundred dollars did Jacob G. Meyer, or, rather, Meyer, take from the pockets of his poor, toiling, but honest neighbors, and transfer to his own? How many corner lots, tenements, fast horses and extra suits of broadcloth has he been enabled to purchase with this money? Give us the figures and the names.

A NEW scheme of rascality, having in view the withdrawal of thirty millions of gold, whereby those who pay duties will be compelled to buy it of the rascals, at exorbitant rates, is said to be on foot in New York. The prompt interposition of the Secretary of the Treasury is earnestly invoked to protect the business community. Better invoke the aid of the stern arm of the law, if there is any suiting the case. In San Francisco, when there was no law adequate to the emergency, Lynch law was invoked with happy effect, and this, too, when threatened with results less injurious than would flow from the success of the New York scheme.

STILL NO ANSWER!—Packer and his supporters are dumb concerning the charge that he sneaks out of paying his taxes, and saddles them upon those who are not so fortunate as to be worth millions or even thousands. Such a fact proven against a man asking credit at a bank or business house, would probably cause him to be instantly rejected. It covers the man's entire character. It reflects him like a mirror, and causes him to be seen and comprehended at a glance by the whole world. The charge is no "electioneering dodge." It is a perfectly authenticated fact, which no one pretends to deny.

The Democratic papers are attacking Gov. Geary on account of his extremely temperate habits. Andy Johnson and Frank Blair suit them better.

THE crop prospects in Louisiana are less favorable. The cane is backward. It is reported that caterpillars are damaging the cotton in several parishes.

Pecuniarially, Packer Promises Plenty; Politically, Packer Promises Poverty.

Moran, Moran, is the howl of the unterrified, but it will be More-an'-less in October.

A fee the Democrats decline to accept—Santa Fe, which has just gone Republican.

The "maxist" thing out on the Democratic party—10,000 Republican majority in Maine.

After election, the Democratic P's, which they are so anxiously praying for, will be Pity, Poor, Packer.

Democrats are in terror of independent candidates. They have really much more to fear from independent voters.

A Democratic paper heads its political items "Ink-Slings." A more pertinent heading would have been Stink Slings.

It is not the nature of a wolf to be rash. There is a Wolfe in Centre county who will soon wish he had been Rash—Cadwallader.

A Democratic sheet says Andy Johnson owes to Tennessee all that he is. He owes the government a good deal that he isn't, and never will be.

Two "harmonious Democrats" recently had a fight in the Illinois penitentiary Both won, being dead, and that's about the way the party will win in October.

Grenoble lost a leg in the army. Rothad not legs to march to the front, or he would have been there. He is educated, but did not learn by rote—Grenoble will.

Asa Packer has raised the price of coal $2 per ton. The poor men who are obliged to submit to this infamous exaction, will raze Asa Packer in October.

The people say wood-ring has not the true ring about it. Never mind; we know a Woodring who will be Woodrung after Oct. 12th—his official head "clean oph" his shoulders.

There is a story of a ram who butted himself away at a wooden mallet, but the Republicans of Centre have a Butts that will make the Wood-ring, and be all that is left after the fight.

Democratic papers are wondering whether Grant's horses are shod at the public expense. They used to be shod—and rather rough-shod—at the expense of the Southern Confederacy.

Pleasant for Hoffman—announcing to the governmental authorities at Washington, the passage, by the New York Republican Legislature, of the passage of article 15 of the Constitutional amendment.

If McMullin carries his threat of murder and riot into execution, or we should have another civil war, we don't want a Packer for Governor. It wouldn't work well to direct the State affairs by Atlantic cable, and Packer always leaves the country when the country most needs him.

St. Louis claims the champion sleepist and snorist. He sleeps four days in a week, and snores like an engine. The St. Louis sleepist will be nowhere when the Pennsylvania Democracy go to sleep in October, for their slumber will be politically eternal. They won't snore, though, but s—k.

John Wiseman, a Democratic Editor in Iowa, not being able to find better material in his own party, is trying to induce a colored man, Thos. H. Benton, to run for sheriff. John, you certainly are a Wiseman; and, if Thos. H. B. can stomach the pill, we've no objection to his swallowing it.

Old Uncle Captain John Morrison was in town last week to see what Meek meant by abusing him so. The Captain got somebody to read him the REPUBLICAN'S account of that famous pilgrimage, and his indignation was intense. Of course Meek told him it was a "lie."—To be sure; but why didn't you deny it in the Watchman?

The Republicans are confident of a triumph in New York city this fall. The Democracy there, as elsewhere, are distracted, and shockingly demoralized.—They have three tickets in the field—Belmont, Tweed and Mozart Hall. They will come together, however, on election day, as the Republicans will bury them in one common grave.

The Massachusetts and Wisconsin Democratic State conventions accept the two fixed facts, "reconstruction" and "negro suffrage" as inevitable and have "governed themselves accordingly."—The REPUBLICANS, TAKE NOTICE.—The Chairman of the County Committee suggests that the Republican voters of the several election districts in this county meet on Saturday the 25th inst., at such places as may be fixed on by their respective Vigilance Committees, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various township and borough offices. All borough, municipal and township offices, (except the assessors,) must be voted for at the coming October election. Remember this, Republicans. Nominate good men and elect them.

The Tyranny of the "Ring."

The Court House Ring is an imperial body. It tolerates neither remonstrance, opposition or independence. It exacts servile and utter obedience and cringing submission to its regal behests. Defiance to its Dictatorship by one of its subjects, sets the whole machinery of the Ring inquisition in motion, and the refractory wretch must indeed be made of sterner stuff than the majority of his political associates, if he does not yield and abjectly return to his allegiance to the arrogant imperialism of the all-powerful Ring. Year after year do we see this tyranny of the Ring manifested and its mandates enforced by appliances baser and more revolting to every notion of moral and personal independence, than the orders and decrees of Priests and Kings. And it is rarely the political rack of this Ring Inquisition when once in motion, fails to do its work. Few members of Centre county Democracy, however insulted and betrayed, have the royal independence to fling out their banner of rebellion to Ring dictation and withstand the result. The sense of dependence and of servile submission to the aristocracy of a few master spirits so long indulged in by the masses of the party, has completely unfitted its members from asserting their independence of authority with any probability of success. Here and there some braver spirit not yet lost to all personal sense of thought and independence of action breaks away from the net, and swims heroically in the race for liberty. But alas! 'tis true, that he seldom reaches the goal of his ambition ere he is engulfed in the meshes spread by his tyranical pursuers and sinks despondingly while his captors smile derisively at his futile attempt and the success of their machinations.

How long will this state of things continue? Has the Democracy no independence left in its ranks? Have its members so long submitted to the imperialism of the Ring that they will never assert their personal rights and insist upon their admission? Each succeeding canvass but "draws the fetters closer and makes that impossible which is now capable of successful demonstration. Will the honest, independent, thinking Democrats forever submit to this modern Court House Ring Inquisition? We would be sorry to believe that this shameful state of personal submission will much longer continue.

☞ When Col. Love reads the Reporter's account of our visit to his home in the Loop, he will discover how flippantly Meek, a "little dutch villain" of the Reporter can lie. This alone should be sufficient to compel the Col. to leave the party of crime, rebellion, thieves, assassins and Thugs. Is it not high time that every decent Democrat in the county should leave the party?

Paper-makers get behind, and that's the cause of our delay.

A Comment.

The New York Citizen, established by, and up to the day of his sad death, under the able management of that brilliant Democratic journalist, Chas. G. Halpine, better known as "Miles O'Riley," is a candid, out-spoken, unpampered Democratic journal, wielding immense influence with that class of Democrats who are disposed to let reason and decency govern them. It goes among the better class of its party, reflects the opinions of thinking Democrats, and its counsels, if adopted, would, in many cases, save the Democratic party from shame and defeat. In a recent number of the Citizen the Editor gives a very comprehensive and correct view of the situation. In speaking of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, he says:

"No condemnation of the rebellion against which the soldiers fought, even though the soldiers were praised—the omission being an insult, if any reference to the subject were proper. No fitting expression in favor of economy in public expenditures; nothing, in fact, first or last, but the old negro question and general abuse of Republicans. The self-same grumbling, without proposing an improvement; the same refusal to understand the altered position of the whole country, which has led to defeat so frequently. The nomination of a man with nothing to recommend him but the faculty for heaping up wealth, with no record worth mentioning, and nothing about him to arouse enthusiasm but his money. Not the first sign of true loyalty, nor the least evidence of devotion to the best interests of the whole country. Under such circumstances we do not expect, nor wish that the Democrats should carry Pennsylvania.

It would be difficult to group together a dozen reasons more cogent than these why Asa Packer should not be elected. Not one single charge made by the Citizen against the "bloated bondholder" Packer, can be gainsayed or explained away. It is treason—cowardly treason—against brave devotion to country; it is wealth and its overbearing aristocracy against the rights and needs of the poor men of the State; it is senseless abuse against reason and right, it is a blind, bigoted tirade and opposition to what is right and inevitable. This is what this campaign is as between Asa Packer and Gen. John W. Geary. We do not believe that a craven in the time of his country's perilous need: a moneyed aristocrat who shirks his State and national taxes that the same may be paid by poor laboring men; that a monopolist who first purchases his nomination and then by power of his railroad combinations advances the price of coal $2 per ton in order to get "even"—even off the poor man—can be elected Governor of this Commonwealth by the votes of either patriot, poor man or well wisher of our States prosperity and advancement.

The Lie Spiked.

We last week had occasion to expose the infamous attempt of the Democratic representative in the Legislature from this county, to fasten a base calumny upon Gov. Geary, in that he had pardoned the murderer Twitchell —for a price. As yet no denial has been made to our exposition. None can truthfully be made. Gov. Geary, that no man might be deceived by the published statement of Hon. (?) P. G. Meek, addressed a note of inquiry to Col. Peter Lyle, Democratic Sheriff of Philadelphia, requesting to be informed as to the truth of the statement and whether there was any foundation to the charge. Col. Lyle immediately returns the following reply:

SHERIFF'S OFFICE,
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14, 1869.

TO GOVERNOR GEARY:

Dear Sir—I have just received your favor of 13th inst., together with the publication contained in the Bellefonte newspaper of Sept. 3d, in relation to the case of Geo. S. Twitchell. My attention had been called to this publication several days since, but I paid no regard to it, and looked upon it as an idle story. There certainly can be no doubt whatever that G. S. Twitchell committed suicide on the morning of the day fixed for his execution. I went to the Phil'a. county prison on that morning at 9 o'clock, together with a jury of 12 citizens selected for the purpose of attending his execution, and we entered the cell of Twitchell and there found him lying dead in his bed. I was familiar with his features and person, and had no difficulty in identifying him, and I am very postive as to his death. I made a return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of these facts under oath, endorsed on the death warrant, which you may refer to on file in that Department. The Coroner also held an inquest on the body of Twitchell on the same day, and his report should be conclusive as to the death.

I certainly never received any pardon from you in Twitchell's case, and never heard such a thing spoken of until it appeared in the publication referred to. I regard the publication as an idle story, without any foundation whatever, and wholly unworthy of any belief or notice.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
PETER LYLE, Sheriff.

"Familiar with his features and person, and had no difficulty in identifying him." "Made a return to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of these facts under oath, endorsed on the death warrant." "Never received any pardon in Twitchell's case, and never heard such a thing spoken of until it appeared in"—the Bellefonte Watchman! "I regard the publication as an idle story, without any foundation whatever, and wholly unworthy of any belief or notice." What, says our honorable member to this impeachment of his honor as a journalist and high-minded gentleman, by the Democratic High Sheriff of Philadelphia? A similar note addressed by Gov. Geary to Wm. B. Perkins, Esq., keeper of the Moyamensing Prison, calls forth the following reply:

To His Excellency John W. Geary:—

SIR—Your favor of 13th instant came duly to hand, and I send by return mail the document you ask for, hoping it will prove satisfactory.—The whole thing is such a base fabrication, and so bears it on its face, that the object is transparent to injure you, but in that they will most signally fail.

I am your friend, &c.,
WM. B. PERKINS, Sup't.

Sept. 14, 1869.

If additional evidence was required by friend or foe of Gov. Geary, to forever settle any doubt entertained as to the truth or falsehood of this infamous calumny, it will be found in the following affidavit which explains itself, and with the publication of which we drop the curtain upon the actors in the most contemptible and futile effort to blacken a pure man's character for political purposes ever attempted in this country.

City of Philadelphia, ss.

Personally appeared before me, the subscriber, one of the Aldermen of the city of Philadelphia, Wm. B. Perkins, Superintendent Philadelphia County Prison, H. Yale Smith, M. D., Benj. F. Butcher, M. D., physicians of said prison, and Patrick Cassidy, one of the keepers of the same; also Andrew Fleming and John Clayton, who had special charge of G. S. Twitchell Jr., who was sentenced to be hung on the 8th April, 1869, on the charge of murder of Mrs. Hill, who, being duly qualified according to law, do depose and say, that they have seen an anonymous letter dated Fort Shaw, Montana Territory, August 21st, 1869, addressed to P. G. Meek, Esq., and published in the Bellefonte Watchman, in which it is alleged among other things, that G. S. Twitchell, Jr., the murderer of Mrs. Mary E. Hill, is still living and was seen by the writer at that place.

This statement is absolutely false. Geo. S. Twitchell, Jr., committed suicide in this prison on the morning of the 8th of April, 1869, and a post mortem examination of his body was made by Dr. Shapleigh in the presence of Messrs. Mann, Collis and O'Byrne, the counsel who had defended the prisoner, and also in the presence of Dr. H. Yale Smith and Dr. B. F. Butcher (physicians of the prison), Dr. Richard J. Levis, Dr. Alonzo L. Leach, Dr. T. S. Butcher and Dr. Aller, all of whom were familiar with the prisoner's appearance in his lifetime, and knew the body to be none other than that of G. S. Twitchell, Jr. His remains were also seen by members of the press, who had been present at the trial, by his father, and by the officers of the prison, all of whom knew the body to be that of the man who was tried and convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mary E. Hill, (his mother-in law). At the post mortem examination his brain, heart, and intestines were removed from the body and the trace of prussic acid discovered. This was done in the presence of all the counsel and physicians above mentioned, and the bottle containing the remainder of the acid was found by Dr. Shapleigh in the identical boot of the deceased Twitchell. His remains were handed to his father and recognized by him, and were interred under the care of Mr. Bringhurst, undertaker; and further deponents saith not.

Won't Be Advised.

The Watchman, like the little dog barking at the hole where the squirrel went thro', continues yelping over its silly invention entitled "Rote and his Revelver." We, last week, advised the Furious fellows who well nigh butted out their brains (?) and reputation (?) in wild efforts to spring a point in that direction, to be sensibly consistent in this Rote canard. We were greatly surprised that the Watchman should return to the charge. After reading its Twitchell sensation, however, we are prepared to see falsehood proven the truth; impossibities, possibilities, and sunlight, moonshine.—We shall not even be excessively surprised to see that the Watchman, in lieu of anything more preposterous, attempts, on some future day, to prove that it ever told the truth about an opponent, or ever thought of doing so: that its Editors ever believed one word they wrote, or heard of anybody else who did. Still, we are suggesting that which will probably never be attempted by the Watchman.

But seriously, well-intentioned people not conversant with the truth telling horror of the Watchman, may be misled, and attach undue, or rather any importance to the story. The Watchman speaks glibly of its knowledge of what it is impudent enough to denominate "facts," and of its itching willingness to "prove" them. For fear the Watchman folks may be keeping back a good thing that might spoil if kept, we write, in earnestness the production of the "proof," and the names of the witnesses of the transaction. Give the public the names, and that they shall receive all possible prominence and notoriety, we hereby vouch that they shall appear in the REPUBLICAN in display letters. Name one witness who will swear to the truth of the Watchman's statement concerning "Rote and his Revolver."

Concludingly, Mr. Rote, as we have before stated, was, and is, by reason of his lameness, physically incapable of doing anything of the kind charged, had he any desire. He neither left his seat when wantonly insulted, or made any movement that way, and we have before us a list of names of men who were present at the time, and who are willing to swear to the falsity of the Watchman's statement. All we ask, is that the Watchman shall first produce its swift witnesses, and we will then prove the Watchman and its witnesses consummate and contemptible liars.

☞ Should John H. Morrison be chosen Register, with the record he made as Treasurer of this county, what Democrats will consent to play victim in the way of bondsmen?

Meek and his "Echo" Liars.

It does not afford us pleasure to prove our neighbors base and contemptible liars. We would rather write them gentlemen, if the truth would bear us out in it. Meek and Kurtz—the convicted liar, and the "little dutch villain"—Par nobile fratrum.

These reckless men have persistently published in their columns, that J. P. Coburn did sell out the charter of the L. C. & S. C. R. R. to the Pennsylvania railroad company, thus making, or attempting to make, political capital against him, when they know that the charge is without any foundation, basely and maliciously false. The Watchman says:

"We understand that Mr. Coburn "is very sore over the the fact that he "had any hand in selling out the "charter of the Pennsvalley railroad "to the Pennsylvania company. He "is now engaged in trying to explain "that transaction, but every apology "only seems to make the matter "worse. We should think he would "feel bad over it. He ought to feel "bad. It was a nasty job, and nobody "is better aware of this than Mr. "Coburn himself. But James can't "explain the matter away. The bold, "bare fact that he did sell out the "charter to the Pennsylvania railroad "company confronts him at every "turn, and there is no getting out of "it. He sold the charter for a "price—was paid for betraying the "interests of the people of Penns-"valley."

We repeat that Mr. Meek, when he wrote the above charge, knew that he was giving publicity to a willful and deliberate falsehood, thus doing Mr. Coburn gross injustice. But what does Meek care either for his own reputation or for the reputation of others?—It is an old adage that "misery likes company." Meek has been convicted, in our courts, of lying. Gen. Lyle, Democratic sheriff, the Prison Superintendent and others, all Democrats of Philadelphia, have proven him a base and a reckless liar, and we have shown him up so often in his true colors that he is loosing cast and feels mean, miserably mean. His only hope is libel ing and slandering his superiors, his friends and neighbors. When it suits his purpose he slanders such men and Democrats as Dr. Jas. H. Dobbins, J. H. Lipton, P. W. Barnhart, and others, and now that they are not in his way he vents his spleen on the men comprising the Republican ticket, but more especially upon Jas. P. Coburn, Esq.

The truth is, that Mr. Coburn did not vote to sell out the charter, as alleged by Meek and his "Echo," (which is too small for further notice here) but did vote against transferring the charter to the Pennsylvania railroad company.

Whether it was right or wrong, the fact is fully established that Mr. Coburn opposed the measure and voted steadily against the transfer. By doso he did right, thereby acting in accordance with the will of the great majority of the people of Pennsvalley at that time.

Men and measures change, so surely as do times and seasons change. What was popular three years ago might be very unpopular now; but the conscientious vote, three years ago, of Jas. P. Coburn, cast alone, but with the approval of every resident of Pennsvalley, may be, with the change in the popular mind, especially in this Railroad matter, unpopular now. With this, however, we have nothing to do at the present. Our business is to prove that when it was the interest of the people of Pennsvalley to oppose the transfer of their charter to the Pa. R. R. Co., Mr. Coburn, like a noble and true representative of the rights of those people, cast his vote boldly, honestly, and conscientiously against the transfer.

Now for the proof. We copy from the Lewisburg Chronicle, dated Dec. 28th, 1866, in which the account of the Railroad meeting in which the transfer was made, is fully given, the following extract:

"At the time and place appointed "(Dec. 26th, 1866,) to test the will "of those concerned, Messrs. Jas. S. "Marsh, Solomon Ritter and John "Locke were chosen Judges of the "election, and Charles C. Shorkley, "Secretary. The vote polled was as "follows:

"For transferring the Charter,	218 shares.
"Against.....	3 "
Majority for a transfer.....	315 shares.

"The votes in the negative were "cast by the Secretary, Mr. Coburn, "of Aaronsburg, who doubtless ex-"pressed the views of his neighbor-"hood. There were a few other op-"ponents of the plan in town, but "they did not see fit to vote."

This is the record. How completely it vindicates Mr. Coburn against the foul aspersions of these reckless liars.

☞ Lewis Hess is accused, by the Watchman and Reporter, with making money off his neighbors by selling oil stock.

J. G. Moyer did sell stock to his own advantage, and to-day is a rich man.

Lewis Hess makes his living by working on a saw mill, so he did not get rich off his neighbors, certainly.—He lost money, like his neighbors, and many others, in the crazy days of '64. Somebody made it of course.

A Democrat, J. G. Laurimore, the father of that distinguished young Doctor, J. F. Laurimore, whose name graces the tail of the Democratic ticket, bought a farm and builded for himself a house. He was manager in the same oil company.

Gibs Laurimore says the charge against Lewis Hess is utterly and meanly false. Gibs ought to know. Dr. Laurimore, in his present delicate position, like the boy who fell out of bed, has nothing to say.

That's Him.

"Reason wont reach him, and opposition only aggravates." Thus said a distinguished scholar and Democrat during a conversation in which the author of the Twitchell calumny came into momentary notice. "I have, in my mind," he continued, "the draft of an unpublished poem, which I can not do better than repeat to you, so completely does it typify the Editor-in-chief of our county organ. I have explained away and toned down Mr. Meek's absurd sayings—to use no harsher adjective—until I am heartily sick of him, his paper, and of the business. The thing begins to react on me, and I am going to quit it. I have a reputation to sustain, which I am forced to acknowledge I cannot do, and defend these idle, nonsensical and imaginative scribblings of Mr. Meek. I have remonstrated with him until I am ashamed to broach the subject again, and he has come to believe that he carries the party, as well as myself, in his vest pocket. I know all this, but have hitherto been powerless to help myself. I will not say what I may do as regards the democratic ticket this fall. I do think, however, if the cortie of Bellefonte politicians who have arrogated to themselves the right to dictate who shall and who shall not be nominees, do not receive a merited rebuke, by a defeat of the ticket they have forced upon us, our party will, and should lose the county."

The following is the poem given us, and its capital hits are so intensely pertinent in their application to the distinguished calumniator and sensationalist, that we must print

'Tis one of the devil's capers, my pet!
To have such as you editing papers, my pet!
There's too much of your stripe
Pointing hellwards in type,
And your bill, like a snipe,
Sucking vapors, my pet!

Yes, sucking them fenny and foul, my boy!
Tainting both body and soul, my boy!
Now crawling to foes:
Now to friends dealing blows,
Whom do you suppose
You'll control, my boy?

The hirelings, paid by the job, my man!
The mountebank, gulling the mob, my man!
The political hack,
With disgrace at his back,
And a treacherous pack
That will rob, my man!

You are seeking position with those, my pet!
May you get the perdition you chose, my pet!
May the people see through
Higher traitors than you.
Such vile carrion birds will not do
Even for "politic Jim Crows," my pet!

Another "Peculiarity."

Fred Kraut, of the Reporter, made a furious parade, a week or two since, of what it was pleased to call Mr. Coburn's penuriousness in church affairs. Aside from the fact that Mr. Coburn, as every church-goer in Aaronsburg will testify, annually gives twice the amount for church and charitable purposes that Mr. Moyer, alias Meyer, contributes, it is proper to note, as we have, and shall continue to do, the little transactions which, more than the big ones, characterizes the true man. Not many years ago, as the facts are related to us, this liberal patriot who took $300 out of the school fund to buy a substitute; this immortal philanthropist, who could turn a poor, shivering, half-starved woman and child from his door one bleak December night; this loving brother who could beggar his brother and defraud Jakey Neidigh; this perfect christian, who could devise means for swindling his brethren while bending with them in devotion; this model man; this Moyer, alias Meyer, hired an assistant. His name was Carter, and he lived at Mifflinburg. He assisted this model bundle of all that's heavenly—as above noted—to assist in running a musical convention. Carter did his duty, and asked for his pay. It was like calling up spirits from the misty deep. Not a spirit come. Carter was without funds, and with linen sadly soiled.—He borrowed money to get back to Mifflinburg, and secured the loan of a shirt of Billy Wolf wherewith to clothe himself decently! How's that, Mr. Kraut? Will you, Billy Wolf, or the lovely Moyer, deny it? We know Mr. Carter wont!!

☞ Fred. Kurtz finds fault with us for going into Pennsvalley on the Sabbath day on a political mission. Now Fred., supposing your allegations true, what was there wrong or criminal in our visit on the Sabbath? Do not our christian ministers fight the devil and his works on the Sabbath? Have we not as much right to fight the world, the flesh and the devil as have the ministers of the Gospel? Is not the devil the father of liars, and being the original secessionist, the only legitimate leader of the rebel or secession Democracy?

Is not the Court House Ring the servant of the devil, whose work it does, whose mandates it obeys? Of course it is right for us and every other truly loyal and patriotic citizen to fight them Sunday, Monday and every other day of the week?

Hereafter, or from the 12th inst., the business will be conducted in the firm name of

D. M. WAGNER AND SON.

I will increase the stock, will continue to buy grain, and do accomodate customers in every possible way. I invite all my old customers to continue with us and hope that the people of Centre, Clearfield and adjoining counties will find it to their advantage to deal with us.

having thereon erected a large new frame Tavern House, Barn, Stables, and other outhouses, with never-failing water at the door, an orchard of choice fruit; about 70 acres cleared and in good state of cultivation, the residue well timbered with pine, &c., and known as the Cammeron tract. The Bellefonte and Lewistown Turnpike passes thro' this tract in front of the buildings, and the Milroy and Bellefonte Railroad as surveyed and will be located, passes through this tract convenient to the main building. This tract holds out great inducements to capitalists.

Also, one other tract of Timber Land, surveyed in the warrantee name of "John Brown," adjoining the Cammeron tract, Drinker's heirs, and others, containing

412 ACRES, MORE OR LESS,

This tract is well timbered with pine and of the first quality, and convenient to saw mills. Title to these lands indisputable.

NAILS, all sizes and kinds, at IRWIN WILSON'S.

Local Department.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 22, 1869.

JOB WORK.—Posters, Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Paper Books, Job Work of all kinds, neatly executed at the REPUBLICAN OFFICE, at reasonable rates.

SAVE MONEY.—If you want posters, circulars, bill heads, cards, paper-books, first-class job work, plain or fancy, call at the REPUBLICAN office. All work done at Philadelphia prices.

SOMEBODY BEAT IT.—Mr. R. H. Porter, of Old Fort, recently gathered from his garden-patch of tomatoes, twenty-three thoroughly ripe tomatoes that filled a half-bushel measure, with a Scriptural generosity—filled, and overflowing.

FAT FACT.—In one of the enterprising and pecuniarily fat townships of this county, lying South of the Nittany mountain, resides a thirteen-year-old girl who has attained the remarkable weight of 240 pounds. We editorially attest and vouch for this statement, as we saw the scales, and the damsel on them.

RESPECTFULLY YOURS, &c.—We hereby return, editorially and collectively, our sweetest and "best-beloved" thanks for sundry and fresh-bottomed bivalves munificently tendered, and instantaneously accepted by us, at the request of our upper ton and nonpareil tobacconist, Levi A. Miller. Speed voluptuous and favoring winds.

COMING IN.—Our agricultural friends, quite through with their fall seeding, are doing a lively business in threshing and grain sales and shipments. The ruling price for wheat seems to measurably satisfy our farmers; or is, at least, sufficient to induce an active transfer from producer to buyer. The price, and indications, are of an upward tendency.

WE shall, next week, give the result of the canvass for subscriptions for the grading of the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad, in the various Centre county townships along the line of the proposed enterprise. Let Potter tp. be warned in time, for the why and wherefore of the remissness of that—the wealthiest township on the route—will be stated in plain, common English terms.

RAILROAD MEETING.—There will be a railroad meeting at Boalsburg on Saturday next, Sept. 25th, at 1½ p. m., at which Mr. Blanchard, Mr. Orvis, Mr. Hutchison, and others, will attend and address the people.

We can assure our friends in Pennsvalley that a fair subscription to the stock, with a grant of the right-of-way, where the road may be most profitably located, will give them a railroad. We say this on the authority of a man who knows the fact, and is, in no way, interested.

CASUALTY.—On Monday last, Mr. John E. Swan, while engaged in slating in the new Presbyterian church, met with a serious accident. The better to nail the slats at the top, Mr. Swan used a short ladder upon the high staging.—The ladder standing too straight, swung from the wall, and Mr. Swan was thrown backward to the floor, a distance of near twenty-five feet. In his descent he came in contact with some edgings, some ten feet from the floor, thereby breaking the force of the fall, and, perhaps, saving the workman's life. Mr. Swan was conveyed to his room at the Cummings House.

NEW FIRM.—It is with pleasure we call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of D. M. Wagner & Son. Mr. Wagner is one of our oldest and most successful business men, having done business in our town for over thirty years, and amassed a very handsome fortune. He says that he has been one of the most extensive grain dealers in the county. He also says that he has, during that time, employed some forty different young men as clerks, and sent them all out first rate business men, and now, having associated his son, W. S. Wagner, with himself in business, it is his intention to make him, if possible a better business man than the head of the firm.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS.—The Second State Convention of the Associations of Pennsylvania will meet at Williamsport, on Tuesday, November 2, 1869, at 7½ o'clock, and close on Thursday evening. Delegations from all the Associations are expected, and the attendance of ministers and others interested in the cause, from churches in places where no such organizations have yet been formed, is also urged. Christian young men in these places are requested to consult together, and see that representatives are appointed. A cordial Christian welcome is assured to all who come. Delegates should be provided with credentials, and their names forwarded to Thomas K. Cree, Pittsburg. Arrangements for reduced fare on the principal lines of travel will probably be made.

DEMOCRATIC CALAMITY.—We learn from our Centre Hall reporter that our distinguished friend and reader, Judge Hosterman, met with a decidedly aggravating personal and political loss, on last Sabbath evening. It seems that a vagrant set of unfeeling and unpolitic democratic scalawags, unborn of virtue, and devoid of Republican decency, did, with malicious aforethought and wicked intent, enter, and forcibly seize and convey beyond personal or political use and application, ONE BARREL of prime Stover-distilled whiskey!!! The Packer fund should be drawn upon to supply this deficiency. It was money; it was votes; it was Democratic whiskey. Judge, give us the names of these party traitors and nocturnal dispensers of the democratic spiritual fund? Be forgiving, Judge; the party must steal about so much, if it don't win—and it wont.

CANS! CANS!—Fruit cans for sale, cheap, at Wetsler & Twitmires, Milesburg, Pa.

A handsome cigar case presented with each twenty five cents worth of segars sold during the coming week at Green's Drug Store.

PERSONAL.—Frank M. Lebo, formerly of the Alpine House, St. Mary's, Elk Co., is the popular clerk at the Cummings House. Frank knows hotelling to a dot.

LEG BROKEN.—A son of Mr. Jacob Grove, while on his way to Centre Hall, on Monday last, was thrown from a stumbling horse, and, as is believed, had a leg broken.

HONOR BRIGHT.—Capt. M. Runkle is determined to continue, as he commenced, selling the best and cheapest Groceries, Spices, Canned Fruits, &c., &c., ever offered in our thriving young city. Do not forget the Capt.

HOWELL, GILLILAND & Co.—This enterprising firm, determined not to be outdone by any Mercantile House in town, are making ready to receive a large and very extensive stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. They deserve success.

ENTERPRISE.—The Diamond Drug Store, F. S. Wilson, Proprietor, is always ahead. Frank has just received another large supply of fresh drugs, together with an endless variety of fancy articles, perfumery, &c., from Philadelphia.—Frank understands his business, and his gentlemanly clerks never make mistakes.

NEW GOODS.—On Monday last it cost us quite an effort to get past the store of Harper Bro's. on Spring street, the way being so literally blocked up with boxes containing a large stock of new goods of every variety. The Harper Bro's know what they are doing. Meek will have a good time convincing them of the existence of hard times. Call and see them.

A LODGE of the Order of the Knights of Pythias will be instituted in this place, on Monday, Sept. 27th, the Charter members of which were principally members of Silver Spring Lodge, No. 103. D. D. Grand Chancellor, R. H. Graham, will institute the new Lodge.

Lodge Room on third floor of Jerry Butts' new brick building on Allegheny street.

ITEM.—We hear of a good thing on our friend Bill Musser, of Millheim.—One evening, of late, a Daguerrean Gallery car drove into that embryo city so late in the evening that the Colonel did not discover it until next morning. Adjusting his specs, the Col. attempted to read the large letters upon the side of the car. "D-a-n-Democratic Rally, by thunder!"

COMPLIMENTARY.—We clip the following kind mention of a recent addition to our Medical force, from the Clinton Democrat:

We regret to learn that Dr. G. E. Chandler has removed from Lock Haven. He has been offered such inducements in Bellefonte as to cause him to change his residence to that place. During the Dr's residence in Lock Haven he had, by his uniformly kind and courteous manner, and efficient discharge of his duties as a physician, won for himself many friends, and secured a large and lucrative practice. We wish him success in his new location and commend him to the attention of the citizens of Centre county who may stand in need of medical treatment.

ILLUSTRATION.—Moyers, alias Meyer's neighbors, tell this story of the distinguished oil speculator: Long years ago, before his oil speculations had been sufficient'y remunerative to enable him to buy farms or houses, or induce him to change his name, he induced an old friend in Miles township to "raise" him a singing class. The class was raised, and Moyer held his friend responsible for the fee. His friend remonstrated, but, at length, paid him; a considerable portion being from his own pocket.—Some weeks thereafter, Moyer discovered a bogus quarter among the many his friend had paid him, and 'tis said the grateful speculator rode six miles to the residence of his benefactor, and insisted upon his friends' replacing the amount with good specie. What wont gratitude induce a man to do?

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Our Centre Hall reporter writes: Mr. William Keller, while on his way to this village, in a buggy, was most severely injured. His horse became excited at the antics of a colt in an adjoining field, and, despite Mr. Keller's endeavors to quiet him, dashed off at a furious rate. On turning the corner near Spangler's Hotel, Mr. K. was thrown from his vehicle, and striking the wheel of a sulky near by, lacerated his face fearfully, and injured his chest somewhat. He was conveyed to Mr. Spangler's Hotel, and soon afterwards to the residence of Mr. Daniel Keller, where he still remains under the medical supervision of our most distinguished physician, Dr. P. D. Neff. The horse continued on his mad career a short distance, tore the wheels from the buggy, and nearly left it a wreck.

IT MATTERS not how many newspapers a man takes, his list is incomplete without his home paper. If that paper is not just such as he would wish he should feel that himself and neighbors are responsible, in a measure, for its shortcomings. Give a paper a liberal support, an active sympathy, and it will instantly respond to such manifestations. Let an editor feel that his efforts are appreciated, and he is the most responsible being on earth; his paper being a part of himself, he is as sensitive to praise or censure as a doting Father.

Nothing can supply the place of a home paper. It is the mirror in which the town and neighborhood news is reflected; in the social, political and religious circle it fills a place no other paper can. When a need of economy compels you to curtail your newspaper list, strike off every other one before you say to the publisher of your home journal—"stop my paper."

CHEAP.—Good and cheap fruit cans for sale at Milesburg, by Wetsler & Twitmire.

GOES BACK ON HIM.—Moyer, alias Meyer, can't drink sweet milk. Cause why? It sours before it reaches his milk reservoir.

GOOD HOUSE.—Those of our friends desirous of whiling away their spare time with profit and pleasure, will do well to visit our friend Harter, who is "boss" of Harter's House, between Hartleton and the Narrows, on the turnpike leading from Mifflinburg to the Old Fort. Hunting and fishing by the retail, or wholesale, at Harters.

TESTIMONIAL.—Walter Muir, Esq., travelling salesman for the large wholesale Drug House of French, Richards & Co., of Phil'a, in a letter to Dr. R.V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Within the past few months Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has found upon my list a most promising place. There is in one good snuff of it more virtue than is contained in a dozen gackages of its worthless rivals that flood the market. Rest assured, Doctor, that my appreciation of its merits, as realized personally in my own case, will urge me to use my best endeavors in introducing its sale through our house.

Yours faithfully,
WALTER MUIR."

DR. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy is sold by most Druggists everywhere. Sent by mail on recipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, Mr. Henry McCloskey, wife and child, of Sprucetown, one mile below Potter's Bank, started across the Seven mountains to visit friends at Reedsville, Mifflin county. Near the foot of the mountain, at the short turn, known to travellers over that route, Mr. McCloskey's animal became frightened at an upturned cart left by the road-workmen, and dashed off at a frightful speed, Mr. McC. being unable to restrain the excited beast. A short distance beyond the cart, Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey and child were thrown from their vehicle, and the parents were rendered unconscious by the shock received in contact with the stones. The babe, most miraculously, escaped any material injury. Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey were discovered soon after the accident, and were conveyed home. Their injuries are not such as to preclude a belief in the recovery of the sufferers, but yet are of a serious and alarming nature.

THE LOCAL PRESS.—The following very sensible remarks in reference to the value of the local press recently appeared in the columns of the Chicago Tribune: "What tells us so readily the standing of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or age can as well be defined by the observing as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, their liberality by the looks of the paper. Some papers show a good solid, healthy foundation, plethoric purses, and a well-to-do appearance generally; others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying hard to eke out an existence from the close fisted community around them. An occasional meteoric display in its columns of locals and editorials, shows what it can do if it had the means, but cannot continue in the expensive work until support comes, which ought to be readily granted. A newspaper is like a church: it wants fostering at the commencement, and for a few years; then, as a general thing, it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its location. Take your home paper; it gives you more news of immediate interest than the New York or other papers; it talks for you when other localities belie you; it stands up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper; and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained. Your interests are mutual and you must rise or fall together. Therefore, it is your interest to support your home paper, not grudgingly, but in a liberal spirit; as a pleasure, not as a disagreeable duty; but as an investment that will amply pay the expenditure."

BRIEFS.—Chris. Keller, of the well known firm of Keller & Musser, will go down to the town of New York, near Brooklyn, out of Jersey, and procure just what they want, and the people will buy.——Zimmerman Bro's & Co., are doing a substantial and safe business for the lightning trade they control. Look in on them. Advertisers always do well, and can be trusted.——Una Kreamer—unus paucorum—of Millheim, is arranging for a clam bake, at which the fattest man walking on the largest number of soft boiled eggs will be adjudged a life member of the "Pennsvalley Fat Man's Association." Una, we have our stamps on you.——Fred. Kraut, of the Reporter, advises his friends to get up a fight in front of our office. We see enough such 'most every day, Fred. Republicans are peace lovers.——The Cummings House, W. J. Hosterman, Proprietor, was always hospitable, but under its late management, is growing more so. The dwellers at its favorite haunts are many, and their rotund person, jolly and satisfied countenances are a walking advertisement wherever seen. Good fare at a living price, and downy beds thrown in, is what will bring additional boarders, for whom there is room, and to spare.——The Watchman office has been removed from its resorts of yore, and goes to its new and elegant quarters on High street. That's all.——A festive party made things "gee" at Centre Hall and the famous "Old Fort," a Sabbath or so ago. The mountain scenery and air has a decidedly refreshing effect upon the nerves of our enervated youngsters. Go it while there's time, and stamps, and girls, and liveries, etc.——The corn crop, variously good and bad, according to lay of land and time of planting, is being cut. The early frosts had an injurious effect upon the crops in many sections, and there will be much soft corn.

Register, REGISTER, REGISTER.

Mrs Geary, wife of our next Governor, General John W. Geary, is in town, the guest of Hon. Wm. P. Wilson.

WHOLESALE & RETAIL.—Wetzel & Twitmire, Milesburg, Pa., are prepared to furnish the market with cans, wholesale and retail.

CENTRE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The eleventh annual exhibition of this society will be held on the ground, at Bellefonte, on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th days of October. The grounds of this society comprise twenty-one acres, all enclosed with a board fence eight feet in height. The buildings are composed of one central building twenty-four feet square, and two stories high, one wing twenty-four feet wide, and one hundred and twenty-five feet in length, well floored, shingle roof, and all the necessary adjuncts for the safety of articles of fine texture intended for exhibition, as are other buildings of the same dimensions intended and used for the exhibition of cereals and vegetables.—There are, also, permanent stalls for horses and cattle, sufficient to accommodate one hundred and fifty head, as also pens for sheep and swine.

The track for the display of the speed of animals is one-third of a mile in length, and said, by those who speak knowingly, to be one of the very best in the State. A large number of horses are already entered to take part in the various trials of speed occurring on the last three days of the exhibition, and it is expected that the competition for the premiums will be exceedingly brisk and well worth witnessing.

The premium list embraces almost everything, and amounts in the aggregate to some twelve hundred dollars, and committees are authorized to extend it at discretion.

On Thursday, 7th Oct., Ex-Gov. Wm. Bigler, will deliver the annual address before the Society, upon the grounds, at 11 o'clock a. m.

On Wednesday evening, 6th October, Prof. J. T. Rothrock, one of the greatest of living botanists, will deliver, in the Court House, a lecture upon "Plants of Cultivation, and the Changes Troduced by Cultivation in them."

Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates from all points on the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad, and on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, good from the 5th to the 9th of October, inclusive.

Any further information may be obtained by addressing William Hamilton, Secretary, Bellefonte, Pa.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Republican Club Rooms, on Saturday night last, in which there was more real genuine enthusiasm manifested, than at any previous meeting since the opening of the present political campaign. The meeting was called to order by our able and efficient President, John Irwin, Jr., who followed in a brief and effective speech as to the issues involved in the present campaign, and the importance of immediate and energetic action on the part of all good Republicans. Mr Irwin closed his remarks by referring to the national government at Washington, its strict economy, and the rapidity in which it was paying off the national debt.

At the close of Mr. Irwin's remarks, Col. W. W Brown was loudly and repeatedly called for, and favored us with one of those telling speeches for which he is so justly famed. He rehearsed the political history of the Democratic party for the last eight years, and proved, to all present, beyond a reasonable doubt, that no political party could produce a more unenviable history. That their history was, in part, a history of arson, robbery and murder, to whose cruelty no parallel could be found among the civilized nations, and to the most barbarous and half civilized nations of the East, we must turn, in vain. In alluding to the finances of the Commonwealth, Col. B. said, proving, by correct figures, that they were never in a more healthy condition, and the national debt was being very rapidly reduced under the present administration—that it was the duty of all good citizens to support the Republican ticket at the coming election—which would tend to strengthen our national credit, and renew confidence in the party which had so successfully carried our country through its late trouble.

On motion, a meeting was called on next Tuesday night, for the purpose of organizing a company of Wide awakes, and on next Saturday evening for the purpose of nominating a borough ticket.

STROHECKER.—On the 26ult., at Rebersburg Centre, co Pa. Dr. Sam'l. Strohecker, aged 70 years, 5 months, 21 days.

Dr. Strohecker was born near Reading in Berks County. In 1816 he moved to Union County with his parents, where he studied medicine with Dr. Joice, of Lewisburg. In 1825 he came to Rebersburg Centre co., where he practiced medicine for forty-one years. Dr. Strohecker was widely and favorably known as a man of generous impulses, comprehensive views and of benevolent principles. He was reliable as a friend, wise and much esteemed as a counsellor, and a lover of justice and order.

Dr. Strohecker was elected to the state Legislature for three successive terms, and filled the office of associate judge in Centre co. for fifteen years.

In his younger years he joined the Lutheran church, in which church he remained a member until his death.

On aug 28th, a funeral discourse was delivered by the writer, based on psalm 90. 12, after which his body was taken to the grave yard of the the St. Peters, church, and comitted to his long home.

Thus again, we are admonished to be also ready, for we, too, must die.

Special Notices.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Sept. 20, '69.

To our Patrons and the Public Generally:—

We hereby very respectfully give notice that on Monday, Oct. 4th, 1869 our mode of doing business will be changed from a mixed credit and cash, to a strictly cash and produce system, and that on and after that date we will positively sell no goods whatever on credit.

Having tried the credit system for nearly three years, we found it both unpleasant and detrimental to ourselves and our customers, we have concluded to try the cash system, knowing that it will be beneficial to both parties, as it must be plain to everybody that goods sold for cash only can be sold cheaper than if sold on credit. We therefore propose to sell our goods cheaper than heretofore, and, as usual, to treat all who may give us a call as pleasantly as possible, promising to always have on hand a complete stock of the most desirable goods in the market.

Thanking you for your liberal patronage we give you a cordial invitation to continue the same.

Yours Very Respectfully,
ZIMMERMAN, BRO'S & Co.

Agricultural Department.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Sept. 22, '69.

From the American Agriculturalist.

A Word to Farmers About Selling Their Produce.

Farmers are often blamed for not selling their produce as soon as it is ready for market. And it must be confessed that those who do so, taking one year with another, do quite as well, all things considered, as those who hold on in hopes of getting higher prices. They obtain their money soon after harvest, and are enabled to use it to advantage. Dealers in grain can obtain money more easily than farmers, and can consequently hold the grain longer.

While, therefore, we think farmers often do better by selling early, there is still room for judgment. One reason why it is usually best to sell early is, that most farmers are disposed to hold on to their grain as long as possible, and when the time comes that they must sell, there are more sellers than buyers and the price declines.

It is a curious fact that the people generally are more inclined to sell when prices are low than when they are high. When wool was 80 cents a lb, it was more difficulty to induce farmers to sell than when it was 40 cents per lb. Last fall, with red wheat at $2,25 in the interior of Michigan, farmers hesitated longer in making up their minds to let their crops go than last summer when they were offered $1,25 for the same wheat.—It is a good rule to sell when you can get a price that will afford a good living profit. Farmers, at the present time, would have been richer by millions of dollars than they now are had they adopted this rule last summer. We know of a great many who sold wheat this summer for one dollar a bushel less than they refused for it last fall. The whole nation sufferep greatly by this indisposition to sell when a good price could be obtained. We might have shipped all our surplus wheat to England at a fair price, but holding on we lost the opportunity, and finally sold at a price below the cost of production. We should take the lesson to heart.

On the other hand when prices are low, we should not be in a hurry to sell. Sound wheat is an article that will keep and it is an article that is always required, and it is absolutely certain that it cannot long remain at a price much below the actual cost of production. We cannot hold out hopes to such farmers as grow only ten or twelve bushels of wheat to the acre, that they will obtain prices sufficient to compensate them for their labor. The country must be in a very unsatisfactory condition when such is the case; but we do firmly believe that there is no reason to doubt that a farmer who raises good crops is safe in calculating that sooner or later he will be able to obtain such a price for his wheat as will enable him to make fair profit.

There is one fact in this connection that should not be overlooked. In a cool, wet, late season in England the wheat crop is always below the average. And they have had such a season the present year. On the other hand, it is very doubtful if the wheat crop of the United States is as large as was anticipated. We feel tolerably certain that before another harvest, wheat will bring a price sufficiently high to afford the wheat grower a good living profit. He should be satisfied with this. He should be in no hurry to take less.

The question arises: What price should we obtain for wheat, to afford us a fair profit? At the present price of implements, machines, and other necessary articles, not forgetting labor and taxes, we shall not obtain extravagant profits if we sell good sound red or amber winter wheat—say in Michigan—for $1,50 per bushel. A farmer who raises anything less than twenty bushels per acre will not get very rich, even if he obtains, in out present currency, $1,75 for red wheat, and $2,00 for choice white, wheat. When we can get these figures in ordinary seasons, it is not safe to hold on too long; but when, immediately after harvest, the price is much below these figures, those who can afford to hold wheat run very little risk of loss in doing so.

GREASE YOUR WHEELS.—Some persons may not be aware," says Hiover in his work, Bipeds and Quadrupeds, "that the trifling neglect of a pair of wheels being comparatively dry or well greased will cause twenty miles to take far more work out of a horse than forty would in the latter case; yet wheels absolutely screaming from dryness are often seen and heard attached to carts and wagons; and thus would the brute in human form let them scream till he had finished his journey's end or his day's work, though his horse were drawing, from such cause, at least one ton more than if the defect were attended to."

DON'T keep a calf tied or shut up in some damp dark corner, with hardly room enough to lie down. He needs the sunshine as much as hens, or the plants in the garden.

IF your flat irons are rough rub them with fine salt and it will make them perfectly smooth.

RIBBONS of every kind should be washed in cold suds and not rinsed.

A bit of glue dissolved in skim milk will restore crape.

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."
Our grandfather's stove, what a funny old thing,
So deep, so wide and so tall:
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."
It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.
As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.
The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.
The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.
In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.
But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more,
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOME."
Coming not only in couples, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent stove, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

This INFALIBLE REMEDY does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions with which the people have long been humbugged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces PERFECT AND PERMANENT CURES OF THE WORST CASES OF CHRONIC CATARRH, as thousands can testify. "COLD IN THE HEAD" is cured with a few applications. CATARRHAL HEADACHE is relieved and cured as if by magic. It removes offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the sense of taste, smell or hearing, Watering or Weak Eyes, and Impaired Memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they all frequently are. We offer in good faith a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that we cannot cure.

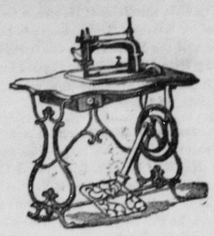
SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE
OVER-SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.
MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.



In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.
It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON AND EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.
The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability, and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.
INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.
Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished upon application at

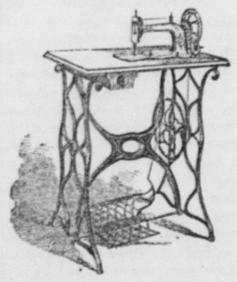
SEWING MACHINE.
THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE.



Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a FAMILY MACHINE,
destined to win much favor in the HOUSEHOLD.
The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for
HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,
QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,
FELLING, GATHERING,
are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortment of
SILK, TWIST, LINEN, OR COTTON THREAD
and all the accessories for the machines, by
